[Approved, May 21, 1855.]

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Secretary's Office, May 16, 1856.

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives:

In pursuance of a law passed by the Legislature of 1855, a copy of which accompanies this communication, I have the honor to submit an abstract report of the statistical information collected by the Assessors of the several cities and towns in the Commonwealth, touching the various branches of industrial pursuit in their respective precincts.

While this report fails to do full justice to the productive industry of the State, it is believed to be more comprehensive and complete than either of its predecessors, for an obvious reason that will be likely to make the next superior to this. That entire accuracy, which is so desirable, and which certainly lies within the scope of systematic and persistent effort, has not, I regret to say, been attained in the present instance. This may be, and is, I apprehend, in some measure, owing to the evident haste with which the law of 1855 was prepared. Many important interests, such as printing and publishing, in all their various departments, engraving, building, coasting, the manufacture of clothing, and various other pursuits which contribute largely to the wealth and prosperity of the State, were entirely overlooked, while there was a want of uniformity and completeness in the questions contemplated and proposed with reference to several other branches. For instance, no inquiry was made as to the value of clocks, sewing-machines, daguerreotypes, hats and caps, cordage, vessels and boats, masts and spars, chocolate, camphene, straw bonnets and hats, and gold pens. Neither was there any inquiry as to the amount of capital invested in sugar refineries, in the manufacture of fire engines, boots and shoes, mathematical instruments, straw bonnets and hats, whips, and twelve other articles which figure somewhat largely in the tables.

For the first and most important omission specified, a general inquiry as to all other branches than those specifically enumerated in the law, and in the blanks prepared in conformity with it, has been found to afford but an inadequate remedy. With regard to printing, publishing and book-binding, a remedy was sought in circulars addressed directly to the proprietors of the different printing and book-binding establishments in the State, so far as they could be ascertained. But these proved scarcely more effective than the general inquiry. The whole amount returned was less than one and a half million of dollars, while the book-publishing business, in the city of Boston alone, is estimated at over four millions. Out of eighty-nine printing establishments in Boston, answers were received from only twenty-six. From but one establishment in the county of Norfolk was there any response, and the proprietor of a newspaper establishment in Hampden County refused to answer. Full returns were received from three counties only—Barnstable, Dukes and Worcester. These returns, desultory and unsatisfactory as they were, are embodied in the appropriate tables, of which they constitute the principal basis. The number of newspapers and periodicals, however, has been made up from other sources.

In the instances specified, where the value was omitted, the omission has been supplied by estimates obtained from persons whose familiarity with the particular branches forming the subject of inquiry, qualified them to judge in the matter. The omission of capital was one for which no remedy suggested itself.

Another impediment to entire accuracy has been found in an apparent inability to comprehend the nature and scope of the questions proposed, or a culpable disregard of them, on the part of some of the Assessors. In numerous instances, these officers, instead of obtaining answers to such questions as were presented in the printed blanks prepared in conformity with the law, obtained answers to other and very different ones; which answers, for that reason, were of little or no consequence. In some few cases it would almost seem that special pains were taken to evade the real questions, and procure answers to others that had not been proposed. On the whole, however, the Assessors acquitted themselves of their duties with intelligence, precision and fidelity.

When the industrial statistics of the State were first collected, in 1837, they exhibited an annual production amounting to $86,282,616. In 1845, the amount was $124,749,457. It has now swelled to $295,820,681,—an increase of one hundred and thirty-eight per cent. since 1845, and of two hundred and forty-two, since 1837; and this, while the increase of population has been only thirty-four per cent. since 1845, and sixty-two in the longer period named. And this result, so surprising in itself, falls, manifestly, below the reality. Leaving out of the account those branches which were unfortunately omitted in the specific inquiries, and making all possible allowance for the greater accuracy attained in the collection of the information embodied in the accompanying pages, it is still apparent that the truth has not been reached. It is next to impossible for the tax-payer, when called upon by the Assessor to answer such questions as were propounded under the law, to divest his mind of the impression of an intimate connection between his answers and the assessment of his taxes. Hence, the general tendency to understate results, and an absolute refusal, in numerous instances, to answer at all. Had those branches which were overlooked been included in the returns, and honest and truthful answers obtained in all cases to the questions proposed, I am fully persuaded that instead of two hundred and ninety-five millions, we should have had an aggregate of at least three hundred and fifty millions, or considerable over one million of dollars per day for every working day in the year. As it is, the result exhibits a rapid and substantial growth in our industrial resources which is believed to be without a parallel in the history of the world.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANCIS DEWITT,

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

NOTES.

(1.) Cotton.—Lancaster Quilts, in the manufacture of which, at Clinton, $125,000 is invested, 249,493 pounds of cotton consumed, 1,600 spindles used, and 40 males and 60 females employed, are not embraced in the table; shoe-strings, manufactured by an establishment in Carver, to the amount of $20,000, are likewise omitted. In the returns from Amherst, Boylston, Brookfield, Coleraine, Lancaster, Northbridge, Northampton, Sunderland and Westfield, the amount of capital invested is omitted; those from Boxford give neither capital, value of manufactured goods, nor the number of hands employed; Concord returns embrace neither capital nor the number of hands, while, in numberless instances, either the quantity of raw material used, the class of goods manufactured, their value, or some other material statement is omitted.

(2.) Bleaching and Coloring.—The value of goods bleached is omitted in the returns from South Danvers and Foxborough; no capital is returned from Medway, the mill, the operations of which, for six months, are embraced in the table, having been burned down.

(3.) Woollen.—Not included in the table are 15,094 embossed table covers, value, $25,000, manufactured in Salisbury; 143 yards roller cloth, value, $350, and 97 yards of woollen shawls, value, $390, manufactured in Southbridge; and 275,000 pounds of wool and cotton, consumed in the manufacture of satinets in Stockbridge. Eleven towns fail to return the amount of capital invested; five, the number of sets of machinery; four, the quantity of wool consumed; four, the value of the fabrics manufactured; six, the number of hands employed, and from one or two the returns are deficient in all of these respects.

(4.) Carpeting.—Not included in the table are four mills for the manufacture of painted carpeting, (two in Essex, one in Middlesex and one in Norfolk,) having an aggregate capital of $12,500, producing 88,000 yards, and employing 28 hands. From two mills in Middlesex there are no returns of the quantity manufactured, and from one no return of capital. One mill in Norfolk and two in Nantucket make rag carpets only.

(5.) Worsted.—The number of establishments in Chelmsford and Framingham is omitted in the returns, and the owner of a mill in Sudbury refuses to give any information as to the value of his manufactures, or the amount of his capital. The establishment in Essex County manufactures mousseline de laines; that in Norfolk County manufactures fancy worsteds; one of those in Worcester County manufactures mousseline de laines, and the other, coach lace, 689 lbs. of silk being used in the manufacture of the last-named fabric. There is also an establishment for printing mousseline de laines at Southbridge, in Worcester County, which prints 4,500,000 yards, valued at $675,000, has a capital of $150,000, and employs 140 males and 20 females.

(6.) Hosiery.—From the establishments for the manufacture of shirts and drawers in Woburn and Worcester, the quantity manufactured is not returned; the description of goods manufactured in the establishment at Oxford is omitted, and the returns from Norfolk County are exceedingly defective throughout.

(7.) Silk.—There is an establishment in Newton for the manufacture of ribbons, fringes and trimmings. Value of goods manufactured, $38,000; capital, $20,000; males employed, 16; females employed, 35.

(8.) Rolling, Slitting and Nail Machines.—There are, in addition, 15 machines in operation in Shirley, for the manufacture of horse nails, and there is a new mill in process of erection in Somerset, with a capital of $60,000. There is also in Plymouth an establishment for the manufacture of zinc, nails and brads, where there are eight machines in operation, zinc manufactured to the value of $8,500, nails and brads to the value of $10,000, and where $10,000 capital and fifteen hands are employed. The value of iron manufactured at one mill in Danvers, the quantity and value of nails made, and the amount of capital invested, are not given in the returns; neither is the number of machines in Roxbury.

(9.) Forges.—No particulars are returned of the business of three forges in Wellfleet and three in Nahant. The number of hands employed in seven at Beverly, and the number of hands and amount of capital employed in four at Newbury, are not returned. From seven forges in South Hadley nothing but the amount of capital and the number of hands is returned. One forge in Norfolk County is connected with nail works.

(10.) Hollow Ware and Castings.—Two furnaces in Berkshire, included in the table, are not in operation, and of one in Hampden no particulars are given.

(11.) Axes, Hatchets and Edge Tools.—There is no return of the value of the article manufactured in Lawrence, Essex County; none of the number of axes made or the amount of capital invested in Sharon, Norfolk County, and none of the number of tools made in Millbury, Worcester County.

(12.) Tacks and Brads.—The number of mills in Duxbury is omitted in the returns. A mill in Plympton returns 170,100,000 as the whole number of tacks and brads made; one in South Scituate, 375,000,000, and one in Abington, 1,405,300,000.

(13.) Ploughs and other Agricultural Implements.—The number of manufactories in Sandisfield; the amount of capital invested in Tyringham, Coleraine, Leverett and Hardwick; and the number of articles manufactured in Shirley and Fitchburg, are all omitted in the returns.

(14.) Copper.—Not included in the table, is an establishment at Taunton for the manufacture of copper and brass kettles, where 300,000 kettles, valued at $109,000, are manufactured, $25,000 invested, and ten men employed. At a manufactory in North Brookfield, copper and sheet iron are produced to the value of $2,000, and one man is employed. The weight of copper manufactured in Boston is not returned.

(15.) Brass Founderies.—The returns from one, a cannon foundery at Chicopee, are embraced in another department.

(16.) Paper.—From New Marlborough, Berkshire County, and Middleton, Essex County, the value, instead of the quantity, of the stock used is returned, the amount being stated in the first case at $41,000, and in the last at $10,000. The quantity of paper manufactured in Huntington, Hampden County, is not returned, nor the quantity of stock used or the amount of capital invested in the business in Shirley, Middlesex County. At Natick, Middlesex County, is a mill for the manufacture of paper pulp, which is not embraced in the table. It uses 490 tons of stock, manufactures pulp to the value of $70,475, has $16,500 capital, and employs twelve hands. Not included, likewise, is an establishment for the manufacture of sand paper, at Winchendon, Worcester County, which makes 400 reams of sand paper, valued at $1,200, employs $200 capital, and one hand.

(17.) Piano-Fortes, and other Musical Instruments.—The towns of Pittsfield, Berkshire County; New Bedford, Bristol County; Beverly, Haverhill and Lawrence, in Essex County; Springfield, West Springfield and Westfield, in Hampden County; Cambridge, Marlborough, Reading, Townsend and Waltham, in Middlesex County; Canton, in Norfolk County; Chelsea, in Suffolk County; and Worcester city, make no return of the number of musical instruments manufactured. Montague, in Franklin County, specifies 300 piano-forte cases, but makes no return of their value. North Bridgewater, in Plymouth County, returns all the particulars, except the number of establishments.

(18.) Daguerreotypes.—The number of Daguerreotypes taken in Great Barrington, Berkshire County, and the amount of capital invested, are not returned.

(19.) Chronometers, Watches, &c.—From an establishment in New Bedford, no returns have been given.

(20.) Saddles, Harnesses, &c.—Hancock, Berkshire County, returns no capital; Quincy, Norfolk County, no particulars; West Brookfield, Worcester County, no value of manufactures; and Westminster, in the same county, the number of manufactories only.

(21.) Hats and Caps.—The number of hands employed in the manufactory at West Brookfield is not returned.

(22.) Cordage.—Eight establishments in Essex County manufacture lines; three of them return 4,230 dozens lines manufactured, and five the value—$24,000—instead of the number. There is no return of capital from the manufactory in Marblehead; the manufactory in Hampden County is not in operation, and from that in Southborough, Worcester County, $3,000 is returned as the value of the cordage made, while the number of pounds is omitted.

(23.) Boats.—The number of establishments for boat building in Swampscott, Essex County, and Franklin, Norfolk County, as well as the amount of capital and number of hands employed in South Hadley, Hampshire County, is not given in the returns.

(24.) Vessels Launched.—There is no return of the amount of capital invested in ship building in New Bedford, or of the amount of capital and number of hands employed in Amesbury.

(25.) Masts and Spars.—The proprietor of one mast and spar shed in Fairhaven, Bristol County, refused to give the assessors any information touching his business. Twenty thousand dollars is returned as the value of the masts and spars manufactured in Salem, Essex County, the number being omitted; and $2,000 is returned as the value of those manufactured in Hingham, Plymouth County, where the number is likewise omitted.

(26.) Railroad Cars, &c.—Ipswich, in Essex County, and Deerfield, in Franklin County, make no return of capital; Attleborough, in Bristol County, and Ware, in Hampshire, return neither the amount of capital invested nor the number of hands employed; Gill, in Franklin County, returns neither the amount of capital nor the number of establishments, and Shrewsbury, neither the number of establishments nor of employees; Abington, in Plymouth County, returns the capital of only one out of four establishments, and Rutland, in Worcester County, makes no return of the value of the vehicles manufactured.

(27.) Lead.—At the manufactory in Salem, Essex County, both sheet and white lead are manufactured.

(28.) Fire Arms.—$137,000 comprises the amount of the manufacture at the United States Armory, in Springfield, which is included in the aggregate of Hampden County, in the column of the "value of fire arms."

(29.) White Lead and other Paints.—Returns from Needham, Norfolk County, do not specify the number of establishments, but give $18,000 (which sum is included in the table) as the "value of white lead, chrome green and vermillion." Essex County makes no return of the number of hands employed.

(30.) Flour Mills.—From the town of New Marlborough, in Berkshire County, no return is made of the value of flour, or the amount of capital invested, but the sum of $8,000 is returned as the value of the mills in that place. Holyoke, Hampden County, returns neither value, capital, nor the number of hands employed. Easthampton makes no return of the number of barrels, and Hatfield returns one "custom mill," but omits all other particulars.

(31.) Currying Establishments.—The towns of Deerfield, in Franklin County, West Roxbury, in Norfolk County, and North Brookfield in Worcester County, make no returns of the amount of capital invested. Melrose, in Middlesex County, returns neither value, capital, nor the number of hands employed.

(32.) Patent and Enamelled Leather.—Wilmington, in Middlesex County, returns "one manufactory just commenced," but omits all other particulars. Worcester city returns one establishment for the manufacture of "enamelled leather cloth," but specifies no further particulars. This establishment is not included in the table.

(33.) Boots and Shoes.—Hardwick, in Worcester County, makes no return of the number of pairs of boots or shoes, but returns the aggregate value, and the number of persons employed, which are included in the table. The town of Mansfield, in Bristol County, besides its regular returns, gives the following statistics: "Boots and shoes bottomed for manufacturers out of town, 12,000 pairs; value, $8,000." Wenham, Essex County, in addition to its regular statistics gives the following statement: "There are 205,000 pairs of shoes made in this town for dealers in Danvers and Lynn; value, $36,560; men employed, 160." The foregoing particulars are presumed to be included in the table in the county aggregates of the several towns, wherein are located the establishments for which the articles were made.

(34.) Straw Bonnets and Hats.—Berkley, in Bristol County, returns, 7,595 straw bonnets and hats (which are included in the table) and omits all other statistics, but adds that the articles enumerated were "made in private families." Greenwich, in Hampshire County, after giving the pecuniary value of the palm leaf hats made in that town, submits the following information in the appropriate place for the number of employees: "Females employed, almost all in the town, when occupied with nothing of more importance." Petersham, in Worcester County, adds to its enumeration of palm-leaf hats, that they are "made in families."

(35.) Charcoal.—The number of hands employed in the manufacture of charcoal is omitted in the returns from Adams and Otis in Berkshire County; Norton and Raynham, in Bristol County; Warwick, in Franklin County; Monson and Wilbraham, in Hampden County; Huntington, in Hampshire County; Dunstable and Tewksbury, in Middlesex; Foxborough, in Norfolk; Rochester, in Plymouth; and Ashburnham, Leominster, Northbridge, Phillipston, Princeton and West Brookfield, in Worcester County.

(36.) Blacking.—The number of hands employed in the manufacture of blacking, in Gloucester, Essex County, is not returned.

(37.) Mechanics' Tools.—The number of hands employed on mechanics' tools in Weymouth, Norfolk County, is not returned.

(38.) Wooden Ware.—The number of hands employed in the manufacture of wooden ware, in Westport, Bristol County; in Northfield and Whately, Franklin County, and in Goshen, Hampshire County, is not returned.

(39.) Corn and other Brooms.—The number of hands engaged in the manufacture of brooms in Shirley, Middlesex County, is not returned.

(40.) Gold Pens.—The following statistics, in the returns from Williamsburg, Hampshire County, are not embraced in the table: "Gold and silver pencil cases manufactured, 40,000; capital, $12,000; men employed, 24; females employed, 2."

(41.) Lumber.—The following towns fail to return the number of hands engaged in the preparation of lumber for market: Stockbridge, Fall River, Norton, Middleton, Gill, Warwick, Whately, Blandford, Chicopee, Huntington, Chelmsford, Dunstable, Framingham, Groton, Littleton, Pepperell, Tyngsborough, Wilmington, Dedham, Foxborough, Marshfield, N. Bridgewater, Hardwick, Leominster, Paxton, Princeton, Shrewsbury, Southborough, West Boylston. The quantity of lumber is omitted in the returns from Framingham, and the value in those from Pembroke.

(42.) Firewood.—The following towns make no return of the number of persons employed in preparing firewood for market, viz.: Great Barrington, Lanesborough, New Marlborough and Tyringham, in Berkshire County; Fairhaven, New Bedford, Norton and Westport, in Bristol County; Tisbury, in Dukes County; Gloucester, Hamilton and Ipswich, in Essex County; Gill, Warwick and Whately, in Franklin County; Blandford, Chicopee, Monson and Palmer, in Hampden County; Chesterfield and Northampton, in Hampshire County; Burlington, Dunstable, Framingham, Lexington, Lincoln, Littleton, Melrose, Pepperell, Stoneham and Wilmington, in Middlesex County; Brookline, Dedham, Foxborough, Quincy and Wrentham, in Norfolk County; Marshfield and South Scituate, in Plymouth County; Hardwick, Lancaster, Leominster, New Braintree, Northborough, North Brookfield, Paxton, Phillipston, Princeton, Shrewsbury, West Boylston and West Brookfield, in Worcester County.

(43.) Whale Fishery.—Besides the deficiencies indicated in the table, the cities of Fall River and Lynn return neither the quantity of sperm nor whale oil, nor the value of either.

(44.) Mackerel and Cod Fisheries.—Truro, in Barnstable County, returns the number of vessels employed in the cod and mackerel fishery, their aggregate tonnage, the number of bushels of salt consumed, the capital invested, and the number of hands employed, but omits all other particulars. Beverly, Essex County, adds to its full returns the following item: "Codfish Oil, 425 barrels; value, $8,925." Marblehead, same county, adds the following: "Value of cod liver oil for currying purposes, $7,217." Nahant, same county, omits the number of bushels of salt consumed. The return from Nantucket states that the fish are taken "in boats." Marshfield, in Plymouth County, returns only the value of codfish taken, and the number of hands employed, and Plympton, in the same county, only the quantity of fish, the value, and the number of employees.

(45.) Alewives, Shad and Salmon.—The towns of Falmouth, in Barnstable County, Westport, in Bristol County, and Holyoke, in Hampden County, and the city of Lynn, in Essex County, make no return of the number of hands employed in the alewive, shad and salmon fishery. Appended to the return from Watertown, Middlesex County, is the following item: "Value of other fish taken, $1,200." Too late to be inserted in the proper place, came the following return from Edgartown: "Barrels of herrings or alewives caught, 1,130; value, $3,390; hands employed, 9."

(46.) Sheep and Wool.—The town of Salisbury, Essex County, makes no return of the value of sheep. From the following places no return is made of the number of pounds of wool produced: New Bedford, Bristol County; Wendell, Franklin County; Chesterfield, Hampshire County; Chelmsford, Concord, Hopkinton, Newton and Wilmington, in Middlesex County; Dedham and Dorchester, in Norfolk County; Abington, Plymouth County; and Bolton, Gardner, Phillipston and West Boylston, in Worcester County.

(47.) Horses, Oxen, Cows and Calves.—From three of the four districts into which Haverhill seems to have been divided, the assessors return the whole number of "neat cattle," without regard to the classifications contemplated in the official inquiries. The number thus returned is included in the table under the head of "oxen over three years old." "Neat cattle," only, are likewise returned from Shutesbury and Monson. Hatfield makes the following supplementary return, which is not included in the table: "Beef cows, 242; gross value, $7,640."

(48.) Corn, Indian and Broom.—From Haverhill and Swampscott, in Essex County, from Monson, in Hampden, and Sudbury, in Middlesex, the number of acres appropriated to the cultivation of corn is not returned.

(49.) Wheat.—The value of the wheat raised in Abington is not returned.

(50.) Rye.—The number of acres is not returned from Haverhill, Swampscott, Monson or Sudbury.

(51.) Barley.—The number of acres is not returned from Haverhill, Swampscott, Sudbury or Wilmington, nor the value from Winthrop.

(52.) Oats.—The number of acres is not returned from Monson or Sudbury.

(53.) Potatoes, Onions, Turnips, &c.—The statistics from Haverhill, Monson and Sudbury, with regard to the crops of potatoes, onions, turnips, carrots, beets and other vegetables, and hay, are in conformity with the instructions to assessors in no particular. In the returns from many other towns the number of acres cultivated, and the average yield per acre, are omitted.

(54.) Apples, Pears, &c.—In twenty-one towns, the number of trees, or the value of fruit, is omitted.

(55.) Hops.—Pepperell and Wilmington return only the gross quantity and value.

(56.) Cranberries.—Either the number of acres, or the value of cranberries, is omitted in the returns from fifteen towns.

(57.) Maple Sugar.—The value of maple sugar made in Otis is included in the "gross value of all other articles," returned from that town, and 1,700 pounds made in Savoy, is included with "sugar refined."

(58.) Porte Monnaies.—The quantity manufactured in Plymouth and Suffolk Counties, as well as in Lancaster and Millbury, in Worcester County, is not returned; nor is there any return at all from one establishment in the city of Worcester.
